American Association for Health Education

AAHE/Will Rogers Institute Fellowship Doctoral Level Award ♦ $10,000

Presented by the American Association for Health Education (AAHE)
Sponsored by the Will Rogers Institute

Each fellowship award will be $10,000. Recipients may utilize the award in any manner to support their educational activities. Upon completion of doctoral studies the recipient will submit a final report to the funding agency detailing the outcome of the fellowship studies. The awarded fellowship will be recognized at the annual Awards Luncheon at the AAHE/AAHPERD annual meeting. The deadline for application is November 15th.

Eligibility Requirements

1. The award is open to a graduate student who has completed at least one year of doctoral study (2 years preferred) in a health education program at an accredited college/university in the United States or a U.S. territory. (If the health education degree program exists under another title such as health promotion or community or public health, the health education relationship must be identified.)
2. A history of work related to research in lung health or your commitment to conduct lung health research during your doctoral studies
3. The student must have a minimum, current, overall grade point average of 3.5 on a 4.0 scale.
4. Prior AAHE scholarship recipients may apply.
