American Association for Health Education

Bill Kane Scholarship Undergraduate Award $1,000

Presented by the American Association for Health Education (AAHE)

The award will be $1,000.00 per scholarship. Recipients may spend the award in any manner they desire. The awarded scholarship will be recognized at the annual Awards Luncheon at the AAHE/ AAHPERD annual meeting. Recipients will also receive a one-year complimentary student membership in AAHE. The deadline for application is November 15. The recipient will be notified by January 15 by the Chairperson of the Scholarship Committee.

Eligibility Requirements

1. The scholarship is open to any student officially recognized as an undergraduate health education major at an accredited college/university in the United States or a U.S. territory.

2. The student must currently be enrolled at a university/college full time (12 hrs) for both the fall and spring semesters of the academic year during which the recipient is applying.

3. The student must have sophomore, junior, or senior status at the time of application.

4. The student must have a minimum, current overall GPA of 3.25 on a 4.0 scale by the AAHE application deadline, November 15th.

5. The student must show evidence of leadership potential.

6. The student must be academically talented.

7. The student must be active in health education profession related activities, organizations, at the university/college, and/or the community.

8. The student essay (item #16 on application form) must also address - What the student hopes to accomplish as a health education specialist in training and as a professional health education specialist in the future. It should include the attributes and aspirations brought to the field of Health Education.

9. Three letters of recommendation (item # 17 on application form) from your professors should accompany each application form. Each letter should be put in separate envelope and each envelope should be sealed and signed across at the back by the recommender. Each professor should address, to the fullest extent possible, academic status, leadership potential, involvement in health education profession related activities and organizations, and their perception of the student's future contributions to the profession as a professional health education specialist.

10. Completed application and supporting materials must be typed and submitted by November 15th of the year of the award.

11. Prior AAHE undergraduate award recipients may not apply.
