

Congratulations to the winners of the first-ever National Physical Education and Sport Week Essay Contest: What does physical education mean to me?

NASPE received so many great essays from students across the nation. Thank you to all who participated in this event to help celebrate National Physical Education and Sport Week.

One winner was selected per grade level. Each winner received a Speed Stacks Glow-in-the-Dark StackPack and recognition on the NASPE website and in the next issue of NASPE News.

1st grade

Mia
Mountain View Elementary
Mountain View, WY

2nd grade

Valencia
Luther Branson Elementary
Canton, MS

3rd grade

Elijah
J.D. George Elementary
Verona, NY

4th grade

Erik
Slate Creek Elementary
Newton, KS

5th grade

Callie
Underwood Elementary
Lees Summit, MO

6th grade

Constance
J.D. George Elementary
Verona, NY

7th grade

Morganne
Unified Catholic Schools
Oshkosh, WI

8th grade

David
Lead-Deadwood Middle School
Lead, SD

9th grade

Bernadette
Bethesda-Chevy Chase High School
Olney, MD

10th grade

Michaela
West Point High School
New Kent, VA

11th grade

Jenna
West Point High School
New Kent, VA

12th grade

Courtney
West Point High School
New Kent, VA

Special thanks to our sponsor:

The Leader in Sport Stacking
www.speedstacks.com