2011 National Coaching Conference Call for Papers

The USA Coaching Coalition is pleased to announce the call for proposals for the 2011 National Coaching Conference (NCC) in Colorado Springs June 22 - 25. Hosted by the United States Olympic Committee (USOC), this conference will focus on best practices in coaching and coaching education, targeting the latest research, practical workshops, and keynote speakers on today's hot topics.

This conference will combine the previously held National Coach Educator's Conference and the USOC's National Coaches Conference.

The conference will "educate, collaborate, and celebrate" by:

- Securing top professionals to share knowledge through formal presentations, breakout sessions, and dynamic panels
- Providing athlete support staff with opportunity to network and debate issues and ideas with colleagues
- Celebrating the profession of coaching by recognizing great coaches at the youth, developmental and elite levels through the USOC Coach of the Year Awards Program

Last Thoughts

The new structured annual conference, combining the former

National Coaching Educators Conf (NCEC) with USOC's NGB Coaches Conf, will provide a great opportunity for coaching educators to network and learn with the best coaches in our national governing bodies. It will be very interesting to see how this can benefit our community of educators.
