

NASPE Resource Brief Reprints & Permissions

Written permission from NASPE is required whenever copyrighted material is reprinted or adapted. Permission to reprint is not official until NASPE receives the signed formal agreement and payment when applicable. Permission requests are subject to a processing and usage fee.

Reprint Permission Process

1. Complete the reprint permission form so your request can be considered.
2. Allow 2-3 weeks to process all copyright and reprint requests.
3. A formal agreement will be emailed to the requestor outlining the conditions of request or denial.
4. Sign and return the agreement and payment when applicable.

Requests should include the requestor's name, address, organization, e-mail, telephone number, and web address (if applicable). Requests must identify the exact material that is being requested to be copied, or used and the title of the publication, video or the Web site URL address from which the material is taken. Page numbers and copyright dates must be included. The request must state exactly how the material will be used and distributed and if the materials will be sold (including: how many pages will be used, when and where it will be used, if being sold – cost, where, to whom, etc).

Permission will not be granted:

- To use any NASPE Service Marks.
- To copy an entire or large portion of a publication, pamphlet, slide set or video.
- To use any material that has been discontinued or that is under revision.
- To duplicate material from the NASPE Web site to another site.
- To translate for a commercial or for-profit activity.
