

AAHPERD AWARD RECIPIENTS

(Through 2009)

The Luther Halsey Gulick Award for distinguished service was established in 1923 and is recognized as the highest honor afforded a member.

The Honor Award, which recognizes meritorious service by members of the Alliance and to the professions represented, was established in 1931.

The Charles D. Henry Award, established in 1984, recognizes a member's contribution through distinguished service to ethnic minorities in AAHPERD.

The Mabel Lee Award recognizes outstanding younger professionals and was established in 1976.

The R. Tait McKenzie Award, which honors members who have had significant influence beyond the profession, was first bestowed in 1968.

The William G. Anderson Merit Award, recognizing a person outside the profession, was established in 1949.
